UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
CENTRAL DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

MICHAEL ROCCA,

Plaintiff,

vs.

99 CENTS ONLY STORES, LLC
dba 99 CENTS ONLY #422;
SYLMAR PLAZA SHOPPING CENTER, INC.,

Defendants.

No.

Plaintiff's Complaint

SUMMARY

1. This is a civil rights action by plaintiff Michael Rocca (referred to hereinafter as “Rocca”) for discrimination at the building, structure, facility, property, land, development, and/or store known as:

99 Cents Only #422
13237 Gladstone Avenue
Sylmar, CA 91342
(referred to hereinafter as “the Store”)

2. Rocca seeks damages, injunctive and declaratory relief, attorney fees and costs pursuant to the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (42 U.S.C. §§ 12101 et seq.) and related California statutes against: 99 Cents Only Stores, LLC dba 99 Cents Only #422; and, Sylmar Plaza Shopping Center, Inc. (hereinafter collectively referred to as “99 Cents Only”).

JURISDICTION

3. This Court has original jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1343 for ADA claims.

4. Supplemental jurisdiction for claims brought under parallel California law—arising from the same nucleus of operative facts—is predicated on 28 U.S.C. § 1367.

5. Rocca’s claims are authorized by 28 U.S.C. §§ 2201 and 2202.

VENUE

6. All actions complained of herein take place within the jurisdiction of the United States District Court, Central District of California, and venue is invoked pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b), (c).

PARTIES

7. 99 Cents Only owns, operates, and/or leases the Store, and consists of a person (or persons), firm, and/or corporation.

8. Rocca is a T6 paraplegic due to a motorcycle accident, is unable to walk or stand and uses a mobility equipped vehicle when traveling. Consequently, Rocca is “physically disabled,” as defined by all applicable California and United States laws, and a member of the public whose rights are protected by these laws.

FACTS

9. The Store is a sales or retail establishment, open to the public, which is intended for nonresidential use and whose operation affects commerce.

10. Rocca visited the Store and encountered barriers (both physical and intangible) that interfered with—if not outright denied—his ability to use and enjoy the goods, services, privileges, and accommodations offered at the facility. To the extent known by Rocca, the barriers at the Store included, but are not limited to, the following:

- At least one of the access aisles has slopes and/or cross slopes that are too steep. Without a level access aisle, it is difficult for Rocca to load/unload/transfer from a vehicle as his wheelchair rolls and/or a lift's platform cannot sit level;
- The disposable seat cover dispenser is mounted too high, thus making it difficult for Rocca to reach and use;
- The toilet tissue dispenser is mounted too far from the front of the water closet, thus making it difficult for Rocca to reach and use; and,
- The pipes beneath the lavatory are not wrapped, thus causing Rocca to risk burning his legs when washing his hands.

These barriers prevented Rocca from enjoying full and equal access.

11. Rocca was also deterred from visiting the Store because he knew that the Store's goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages, and accommodations were unavailable to physically disabled patrons (such as himself). He continues to be deterred from visiting the Store because of the future threats of injury created by these barriers.

12. Rocca also encountered barriers at the Store, which violate state and federal law, but were unrelated to his disability. Nothing within this complaint, however, should be construed as an allegation that Rocca is seeking to remove barriers unrelated to his disability.

13. Rocca would revisit the Store if 99 Cents Only removed the barriers identified above. Rocca visits Sunland-Tujunga two to five times per month, and passes through and stops in Sylmar on the way. During his stops in Sylmar, he often dines and shops in the town. Rocca has visited the Store and plans to do so again once the above barriers are removed.

14. 99 Cents Only knew that these elements and areas of the Store were inaccessible, violate state and federal law, and interfere with (or deny) access to the physically disabled. Moreover, 99 Cents Only has the financial resources to remove these barriers from the Store (without much difficulty or expense), and make the Store accessible to the physically disabled. To date, however, 99 Cents Only refuses to either remove those barriers or seek an unreasonable hardship exemption to excuse non-compliance.

15. At all relevant times, 99 Cents Only has possessed and enjoyed sufficient control and authority to modify the Store to remove impediments to wheelchair access and to comply with the Americans with Disabilities Act Accessibility Guidelines and Title 24 regulations. 99 Cents Only has not removed such impediments and has not modified the Store to conform to accessibility standards.

FIRST CLAIM

Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990

Denial of "Full and Equal" Enjoyment and Use

16. Rocca incorporates the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 15 for this claim.

1 17. Title III of the ADA holds as a “general rule” that no individual shall
2 be discriminated against on the basis of disability in the full and equal enjoyment
3 (or use) of goods, services, facilities, privileges, and accommodations offered by 4 any person who owns, operates, or leases a place of public accommodation. 42
5 U.S.C. § 12182(a).

6 18. 99 Cents Only discriminated against Rocca by denying “full and equal
7 enjoyment” and use of the goods, services, facilities, privileges or accommodations
8 of the Store during each visit and each incident of deterrence.

9 Failure to Remove Architectural Barriers in an Existing Facility

10 19. The ADA specifically prohibits failing to remove architectural 11 barriers, which are structural in nature, in existing facilities where such removal is 12 readily achievable. 42 U.S.C. § 12182(b)(2)(A)(iv). The term “readily achievable”
13 is defined as “easily accomplishable and able to be carried out without much 14 difficulty or expense.” Id. § 12181(9).

15 20. When an entity can demonstrate that removal of a barrier is not readily
16 achievable, a failure to make goods, services, facilities, or accommodations
17 available through alternative methods is also specifically prohibited if these 18 methods are readily achievable. Id. § 12182(b)(2)(A)(v).

19 21. Here, Rocca alleges that 99 Cents Only can easily remove the 20 architectural barriers at Store without much difficulty or expense, and that 99 Cents
21 Only violated the ADA by failing to remove those barriers, when it was readily
22 achievable to do so.

23 22. In the alternative, if it was not “readily achievable” for 99 Cents Only 24 to remove the Store’s barriers, then 99 Cents Only violated the ADA by failing to 25 make the required services available through alternative methods, which are 26 readily achievable.

1 Failure to Design and Construct an Accessible Facility

2 23. On information and belief, the Store was designed or constructed (or 3 both) after January 26, 1992—independently triggering access requirements under 4 Title III of the ADA.

5 24. The ADA also prohibits designing and constructing facilities for first 6 occupancy after January 26, 1993, that aren't readily accessible to, and usable by,
7 individuals with disabilities when it was structurally practicable to do so. 42 U.S.C.
8 § 12183(a)(1).

9 25. Here, 99 Cents Only violated the ADA by designing or constructing 10 (or both) the Store in a manner that was not readily accessible to the physically
11 disabled public—including Rocca—when it was structurally practical to do so.¹

12 Failure to Make an Altered Facility Accessible

13 26. On information and belief, the Store was modified after January 26,
14 1992, independently triggering access requirements under the ADA.

15 27. The ADA also requires that facilities altered in a manner that affects 16 (or could affect) its usability must be made readily accessible to individuals with 17 disabilities to the maximum extent feasible. 42 U.S.C. § 12183(a)(2). Altering an 18 area that contains a facility's primary function also requires adding making the 19 paths of travel, bathrooms, telephones, and drinking fountains serving that area
20 accessible to the maximum extent feasible. Id.

21 28. Here, 99 Cents Only altered the Store in a manner that violated the 22 ADA and was not readily accessible to the physically disabled public—including 23 Rocca—to the maximum extent feasible.

25
26
27 ¹ Nothing within this Complaint should be construed as an allegation that 28 plaintiff is bringing this action as a private attorney general under either state or federal statutes.

1 Failure to Modify Existing Policies and Procedures

2 29. The ADA also requires reasonable modifications in policies,
3 practices, or procedures, when necessary to afford such goods, services, facilities,
4 or accommodations to individuals with disabilities, unless the entity can 5 demonstrate that making such modifications would fundamentally alter their 6 nature. 42 U.S.C. § 12182(b)(2)(A)(ii).

7 30. Here, 99 Cents Only violated the ADA by failing to make reasonable
8 modifications in policies, practices, or procedures at the Store, when these 9 modifications were necessary to afford (and would not fundamentally alter the 10 nature of) these goods, services, facilities, or accommodations.

11 31. Rocca seeks all relief available under the ADA (i.e., injunctive relief, 12 attorney fees, costs, legal expense) for these aforementioned violations. 42 U.S.C.
13 § 12205.

14 32. Rocca also seeks a finding from this Court (i.e., declaratory relief)
15 that 99 Cents Only violated the ADA in order to pursue damages under California's 16 Unruh Civil Rights Act or Disabled Persons Act.

17 SECOND CLAIM

18 Disabled Persons Act

19 33. Rocca incorporates the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 20 30 for this claim.

21 34. California Civil Code § 54 states, in part, that: Individuals with 22 disabilities have the same right as the general public to the full and free use of the 23 streets, sidewalks, walkways, public buildings and facilities, and other public
24 places.

25 35. California Civil Code § 54.1 also states, in part, that: Individuals with 26 disabilities shall be entitled to full and equal access to accommodations, facilities, 27 telephone facilities, places of public accommodation, and other places to which the 28 general public is invited.

36. Both sections specifically incorporate (by reference) an individual's rights under the ADA. See Civil Code §§ 54(c) and 54.1(d).

37. Here, 99 Cents Only discriminated against the physically disabled public—including Rocca—by denying them full and equal access to the Store. 99 Cents Only also violated Rocca’s rights under the ADA, and, therefore, infringed upon or violated (or both) Rocca’s rights under the Disabled Persons Act.

38. For each offense of the Disabled Persons Act, Rocca seeks actual damages (both general and special damages), statutory minimum damages of one thousand dollars ($1,000), declaratory relief, and any other remedy available under California Civil Code § 54.3.

39. He also seeks to enjoin 99 Cents Only from violating the Disabled Persons Act (and ADA) under California Civil Code § 55, and to recover reasonable attorneys' fees and incurred under California Civil Code §§ 54.3 and 55.

THIRD CLAIM

Unruh Civil Rights Act

40. Rocca incorporates the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 30 for this claim.

41. California Civil Code § 51 states, in part, that: All persons within the jurisdiction of this state are entitled to the full and equal accommodations, advantages, facilities, privileges, or services in all business establishments of every kind whatsoever.

42. California Civil Code § 51.5 also states, in part, that: No business establishment of any kind whatsoever shall discriminate against any person in this state because of the disability of the person.

43. California Civil Code § 51(f) specifically incorporates (by reference) an individual's rights under the ADA into the Unruh Act.

1 disabilities. Accordingly, he seeks injunctive relief and attorney fees pursuant to
2 Health and Safety Code § 19953.

3 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

4 WHEREFORE, Rocca prays judgment against 99 Cents Only for:

5 1. Injunctive relief, preventive relief, or any other relief the Court deems
6 proper.

7 2. Declaratory relief that 99 Cents Only violated the ADA for the 8 purposes of Unruh Act or Disabled Persons Act damages.

9 3. Statutory minimum damages under either sections 52(a) or 54.3(a) of 10 the California Civil Code (but not both) according to proof.

11 4. Attorneys' fees, litigation expenses, and costs of suit.²

12 5. Interest at the legal rate from the date of the filing of this action.
